Section 8-13-1308, S.C. Code Ann., 1976, as amended, requires candidates to file Campaign Disclosures within ten (10) days of receiving or expending $500; fifteen (15) days prior to each election; within ten (10) days of the end of each quarter; and a final report when the campaign account is closed. In addition, certified campaign reports detailing campaign contributions and expenditures must contain the total of contributions accepted, the name and address of each person making a contribution, the total expenditures made by or on behalf of the candidate or committee, and the name and address of each person to whom an expenditure is made from campaign funds. Records of the State Ethics Commission indicate that a Pre-Election Campaign Disclosure was due between October 18, 2017 and October 23, 2017. Respondent was sent an email reminder thirty days before the Pre-Election Campaign Disclosure deadline.

Section 8-13-1140, SC Code Ann., 1976, as amended, requires the filing of an updated Statement of Economic Interests for the previous calendar year annually thereafter prior to March 30. Respondent was reminded of the filing requirement by a letter dated January 2, 2020 as described in the attached. All in violation of Section 8-13-1140, Section 8-13-1308(D)(1), and Section 8-13-1308 (F), S.C. Code Ann., 1976, as amended.

All investigations, inquiries, hearings, and accompanying documents must remain confidential unless respondent waives the right to confidentiality. If there is a finding of probable cause, the following documents become public record: the complaint, the response (if any) by respondent, and the notice of hearing. If a hearing is to be held, the final order and all exhibits become public record. If no hearing is held following a finding of probable cause, the final disposition of the matter becomes public record. The willful release of confidential information is a misdemeanor, and any person releasing such confidential information, upon conviction, must be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned not more than one year. BEFORE THE STATE ETHICS COMMISSION

CONSENT ORDER

This matter comes before the State Ethics Commission (Commission) by way of a Complaint filed on February 27, 2020. Pursuant to Section 8-13-320(10)(i) of the South Carolina Ethics, Government Accountability, and Campaign Reform Act (Ethics Act), the Complaint against Fletcher M. Ready, III (Respondent) was considered by the Commission and probable cause was found to warrant an evidentiary hearing on one (1) count of violating Section 8-13-1308 for failure to file a 2016 Pre-Election Campaign Disclosure (CDR) and three (3) counts of violating Section 8-13-1140 for failure to timely file a 2017, 2018, and 2019 Statement of Economic Interests (SEI). Prior to the call of the case, Respondent agreed to entry of the following:

STATEMENTS OF FACT

1. Respondent was elected to the Fairfax Town Council in 2016.
2. Respondent failed to file a Pre-Election CDR fifteen (15) days before his 2016 election.
3. Respondent failed to timely file SEIs in 2017, 2018, and 2019.¹
4. The Commission notified Respondent of his failure to file via certified letter mailed to Respondent's address of record on January 2, 2020. According to the U.S. Postal Service, the certified letter was delivered on January 13, 2020 at 11:50 a.m.

¹ Respondent also failed to file a 2015 SEI, but this failure occurred outside the Commission's four year statute of limitations found in Section 8-13-320(9)(d).

5. Penalties began to accrue at $40 ($10 per report) per day on January 23, 2020.
6. Penalties began to accrue at $400 per day ($100 per report) on February 2, 2020.
7. On April 23, 2020 and May 5, 2020, a Commission Investigator contacted Respondent via telephone and email. Respondent acknowledged receipt of the Complaint and informed the investigator he was having difficulty filing.
8. The Commission Investigator put Respondent in contact with the Disclosure Division and Respondent came into compliance by filing the requisite reports on May 29, 2020. Respondent reported no contributions or expenditures in his Pre-Election CDR.
9. At the time Respondent came into compliance, he had reached $5,000 in late-filing penalties for each report, for a total of $20,000.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based upon the Statements of Fact, the Commission concludes, as a matter of law:

1. At all times relevant, Respondent was a public official and a candidate for public office pursuant to Section 8-13-100(28) and Section 8-13-100(4). Therefore, the Commission has personal and subject matter jurisdiction.
2. Section 8-13-1308(A) provides, in relevant part:

. . . a candidate who does not receive or expend campaign contributions totaling an accumulated aggregate of five hundred dollars or more must file an initial certified campaign report fifteen days before an election.
3. Section 8-13-1140 provides, in relevant part:

A person required to file a [SEI] under this chapter annually shall file . . . an updated statement for the previous calendar year, no later than noon on March 30 of each calendar year.
4. Section 8-13-1510(A) provides:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, a person required to file a report or statement under this chapter who files a late statement or report or fails to file a required statement or report must be assessed a civil penalty as follows: (1) a fine of one hundred dollars if the statement or report is not filed within five days after the established deadline provided by law in this chapter; and (2) after notice has been given by certified or registered mail that a required statement or report has not been filed, a fine of ten dollars per calendar day for the first ten days after notice has been given, and one hundred dollars for each additional calendar day in which the required statement or report is not filed, not exceeding five thousand dollars.

5. Sections 8-13-130 and 8-13-320(10)(1)(i) allow the Commission to “levy an enforcement or administrative fee on a person who is in violation” of the Ethics Act and to impose a civil penalty of up to $2,000 for each violation of the Ethics Act.

DISCUSSION

The Commission found probable cause to charge Respondent with one (1) count of violating Section 8-13-1308 for failing to file a Pre-Election CDR fifteen (15) days before his 2016 election and three (3) counts of violating Section 8-13-1140 for failure to timely file a 2017, 2018, or 2019 SEI. Through this Consent Order, Respondent acknowledges he violated the Ethics Act when he failed to file a Pre-Election CDR fifteen (15) days before his 2016 election and when he failed to timely file a 2017, 2018, or 2019 SEI. In mitigation, Respondent asserts 2016 was his first time running for office and that he was unaware of the filing requirements. Respondent also asserts that his paychecks and taxes are already being garnished and that additional monetary penalties would severely impact his family.² Respondent maintains that he will file the requisite forms moving forward and will contact Commission staff if he needs assistance.

² As a result of Respondent’s failure to file additional reports in 2016, Respondent has been assessed a $10,000 fine. These filings are not encompassed within the current Complaint.

DISPOSITION

1. The Commission hereby finds Respondent in violation of one (1) count of Section 8-13-1308 and three (3) counts of Section 8-13-1140.
2. The Commission hereby adopts the Statements of Fact, Conclusions of Law, Discussion, and Disposition as agreed upon by the Respondent.

THEREFORE, the Commission hereby issues a Public Reprimand and orders the Respondent to pay the Commission, within one hundred and eighty (180) days from receipt of this Order, a late-filing penalty of $100 for each count and a $300 administrative fee, for a total of $700.

By executing this Consent Order, Respondent understands that he is not only admitting to violations of the Ethics Act, but also confessing to a judgment of $28,000 (less any money paid to the Commission) in the event he does not make full and timely payment as provided for in this Order. In that event, the Commission shall file a Judgment against Respondent in the Orangeburg County Clerk of Court's Office. Upon said filing, the Clerk of Court shall enter this Order in the amount of $28,000 (less any money paid to the Commission) in its Judgment Rolls, without cost to the Commission.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED THIS 22 DAY OF December 2020.
